

SUMMER (DAY EVENT DRESS) & Clothing Requirements:

- Boots: Sturdy hiking or bush boot that provides good support and comfortable fit
- Jacket: decent warm jacket that offers protection, is lightweight, breathable, rugged
- Pants: Must wear pants in the outback for safety reasons. Breathable, fast drying, rugged
- Shorts: (optional to bring along in addition to bathsuit or as bathsuit substitute)
- T-shirt & Sweater: t-shirt breathable and a sweater for when it gets cool out or cold days
- Rain Jacket: (well fitting, decent quality, a little loose fitting to allow for clothing layers)
- Gloves: leather or rugged mechanic type gloves with reinforced seems. Protective gear
- Safety Glasses with case: quality and breathable (goggle style best) Protective gear
- Day Pack Small: for storing items while on day event
- Bathsuit & Towel: in case swimming opportunity arises
- Crock watershoes: for foot protection when swimming or backup when shoes wet (swimming)
- Food and snacks if required for event or excursion see what is covered on particular event

SPRING & FALL (DAY EVENT DRESS) & Clothing Requirements:

- Gloves: leather or rugged mechanic type gloves with reinforced seems. Protective gear
- Safety Glasses with case: quality and breathable (goggle style best) Protective gear
- Boots: Sturdy hiking or bush boot that provides good support and comfortable fit if really wet conditions water proof boots or rubber boots (early spring & late fall) insulated rubber boots
- Jacket: decent warm jacket that offers protection, is lightweight, breathable, rugged
- Pants: Must wear pants in the outback for safety reasons. Breathable, fast drying, rugged
- Shorts: (optional to bring along in addition to bathsuit or as bathsuit substitute)
- T-shirt & Sweater: t-shirt breathable and a sweater for when it gets cool out or cold days
- Rain Jacket: (well fitting, decent quality, a little loose fitting to allow for clothing layers)
- Gloves: leather or rugged mechanic type gloves with reinforced seems. Protective gear
- Day Pack Small: for storing items while on day event
- Food and snacks if required for event or excursion see what is covered on particular event

WINTER (DAY EVENT DRESS) & Clothing Requirements:

- Gloves insulated: For working but still provides warmth (doesnt replace mitts or work gloves)
- Long Johns / Thermal Underwear: Wicking are the best. Thermal underpants essential
- Spare socks : wool and cold weather thermal socks are recommended

- SnowPants: light weight and insulated (must have for winter conditions outdoor living)
- Jacket: decent warm jacket (as a lighter option then parka)
- Winter Parka: -30 or more rating insulated winter jacket, parka sytle with hood best
- Sweater: wool is a good option as it keeps warm when wet. Warm sweater is key layer
- Decent toque: good insulated toque and folding earmuffs insulated are a good added item
- Scarf: Shemagh works
- Balaclava: must have for winter camping & extended period outdoor activities
- HEAVY MITTS: it is essential to have good heavy winter mitts, leather best, -30+ best
- BOOTS: Comfortable winter rated insulated boots -30+ or more, sorrel, muckluk style. Insulated rubber boots can be a good option make sure whatever you choose has a tie up lace at the top of the boot to keep the snow out when going thru deep snow
- Day Pack Small: for storing items while on day event
- Gloves: leather or rugged mechanic type gloves with reinforced seems. Protective gear
- Safety Glasses with case: quality and breatheable (goggle style best) Protective gear
- Food and snacks if required for event or excursion see what is covered on particular event